Homeschool Wednesday: Omnivores
Wednesday, December 4

10:00 – 11:30 AM

Ages 8 - 12
Environmental Center

Homeschool science classes continue Wednesday mornings with programs geared for older youth. Late fall classes share a focus on mammals. Last, but certainly not least, we cover the omnivores. With Naturalist Mary Ann Schlegel, students will discover some of our most infamous local mammals. Dress for indoor and outdoor activity. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Tuesday, December 3. $4.00 per child and $1.00 per adult.

Mini Ecosystems: Terrarium in a Jar
Saturday, December 7

4:00 – 5:30 PM

Ages 8 and up
Environmental Center

Join Naturalist Aaron Hasircoglu and make your very own terrarium! Children and adults alike will have fun as we learn about plants, invertebrates, and creating a miniature ecosystem. All supplies will be provided. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Wednesday December 4. $2.00 per person and $8.00 per terrarium.

Munchkin Science: Mammals
Tuesday, December 10

1:00 – 2:00 PM

Ages 3 – 5
Environmental Center

Mammals are fascinating and they are all around us. Naturalist Ann Strauss will lead an up-close examination of furs, skulls, and skeletons. Participants will also play with mammal tracks and make track books to take home. Lastly, we will take an exploration walk to look for signs that show us mammals have been in the neighborhood. These programs are geared for ages 3 through 5. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Monday, December 9. $3.00 per child age 3 and up and $1.00 per adult.

Full Owl Moon Hike
Thursday, December 12

6:00 – 7:30 PM

All Ages
Environmental Center

Join Naturalist Lisa J. Sanchez for an owl prowl under the full moon. Learn about owls before we hike to look and listen for them. The full moon will guide our way and hopefully help us see them. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Wednesday, December 11. $2.00 per person.

Pre-registration and pre-payment are required for all programs.

Unless otherwise noted children must be accompanied by an adult and children 3 and under are free.

Winter Treats for Backyard BirdsSaturday, December 14*10:00 – 11:00 AM*All Ages*Environmental Center

Winter bird-feeding is a rewarding past-time for experienced as well as beginning birders – and everyone in between! Naturalist Mary Ann Schlegel will assist participants in making a variety of wild bird foods including dried fruit and cranberry garlands and wreaths, orange cups, and suet balls. Dress for a messy project that includes nuts, fruits, seeds, peanuts, and peanut butter. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register by noon on Friday, December 13. $4.00 per person.

Kids' Outdoor Expedition and Ornament CraftingSaturday, December 14*1:00 – 2:30 PM*Ages 2 - 10*Environmental Center

This program will allow your children to learn about the beauty nature has to offer during the winter months while crafting ornaments for your tree at home. Naturalist Vanessa Stager will begin with a hike around the Environmental Center to collect materials needed for the ornaments such as fallen pinecones and sticks. Once we have all that we need, we will head back to the classroom to create our own ornaments! Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register by noon on Friday, December 13. $4.00 per child age 2 and up and $1.00 per adult.

Reptile Lady: All about LizardsSunday, December 15*1:30 – 2:30 PM*Ages 3 and up*Environmental Center

Join Reptile Lady: Naturalist Kelsey Frey, as you explore scaly creatures from around the world! Examine live lizards as you study their basic biology and unique features. The small group atmosphere includes time for questions and photo opportunities. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, December 13. $2.00 per person age 3 and up.

Spot, Squish, SCRAPE the Spotted LanternflyMonday, December 16*6:30 – 7:30 PM*All Ages*Environmental Center

Now is the time of year to SQUISH the egg masses of the spotted lanternfly. Join Naturalist Lisa J. Sanchez to learn all about this non-native invasive pest. We will examine the life cycle of the SLF so that you will know how and when to spot it. Learn what you can do to help eliminate this unwelcomed insect from your property and wherever you travel. This will be a free public service program. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register by noon on Friday, December 13. Free. Donations are appreciated and allow us to continue to provide high-quality, environmental education programming.

Homeschool Wednesday: Preparing for WinterWednesday, December 18*10:00 – 11:30 AM*Ages 8 - 12*Environmental Center

Homeschool science classes continue Wednesday mornings with programs geared for older youth. Late fall classes share a focus on mammals. With Naturalist Mary Ann Schlegel, students have met the common local mammals over the last few classes. Students will now discover how our mammalian neighbors in the woods and fields prepare for the upcoming winter season. Dress for indoor and outdoor activity. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Tuesday, December 17. $4.00 per child and $1.00 per adult.

Pre-registration and pre-payment are required for all programs.

Winter Solstice CelebrationSaturday, December 21*6:00 – 7:30 PM*All Ages*Environmental Center

Welcome the winter season with Naturalist Brandon Pentz in Central Park! Learn more about the science behind the Winter Solstice and the cultural traditions that accompany the season. We will make pomanders (clove oranges) and explore the winter sky, weather permitting. Light refreshments are included. Families welcome. Come prepared to spend up to 20 minutes outdoors. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, December 20. $3 per person and $2 per pomander.

Bear Requirement: Fur, Feathers, and FernsFriday, December 27*10:00 AM – 12:00 PM*Ages 9 and up*Environmental Center

Bear Cub Scouts are invited to join Naturalist Ann Strauss for a morning working towards the Bear Adventure Requirement Fur, Feathers and Ferns. Bears will be able to complete all but one of the necessary badge requirements. Participants need to come dressed for the weather with shoes for hiking. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Thursday, December 26. $5.00 per scout and $1.00 per adult.

Wrap up 2019 with a New Moon Night HikeFriday, December 27*7:00 – 8:00 PM*All Ages*Environmental Center Forebay

Get outside and breathe the cold, fresh air! Naturalist Ann Strauss will lead participants on a stroll under the dark December sky. The last New Moon of 2019 will allow us to stargaze at the winter constellations. We will learn some fun things about night vision and nocturnal animals in Central Park along the way. Meet at the Environmental Center Forebay to join in the fun! Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Thursday, December 26. $2.00 per person.

Winter Bird CountSaturday, December 28*9:00 – 11:00 AM*All Ages*Environmental Center

Lancaster County Bird Club (LCBC) and the Lancaster County Parks co-sponsors a Christmas Bird Count for Kids (CBC4KIDS). The CBC4KIDS is a youth activity that gets children and adults outdoors during the Christmas holidays, and involves a worthwhile “citizen scientist” event. The CBC4KIDS is based on an adult version of the Audubon Christmas Bird Count that was founded in 1900. This abbreviated event teaches youth the adventure of bird identification in the wintertime. Participants form teams or may be assigned to a team. Volunteers from LCBC will teach participants how to use binoculars; loaners will be available if needed. LCBC members will lead the teams on 90-minute walks in Central Park to identify as many species as possible. Each team will report their results at the end of the walk and record their data on eBird; submitting their bird checklists will introduce the concept of citizen science to the young naturalists and emphasize how their efforts can assist bird population monitoring and conservation efforts. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register by noon on Thursday, December 26. Free. Donations are appreciated and allow us to continue to provide high-quality, environmental education programming.

Pre-registration and pre-payment are required for all programs.

Unless otherwise noted children must be accompanied by an adult and children 3 and under are free.

Munchkin Science – Winter HikeAges 3 - 5*Tuesday, December 31*1:00 – 2:00 PM*Environmental Center

Get your Munchkins outside on a cold, winter's day. We will meet Naturalist Ann Strauss for a hike on the Scout Trail and complete the loop. As we hike, kids will learn about animals and plants in winter and what is still active and what is not. These programs are geared for ages 3 through 5. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Monday, December 30. $3.00 per child and $1.00 per adult.

Cabin Fever Hike and Scavenger HuntAll Ages*Saturday, January 4*10:00 – 11:00 AM*Environmental Center Forebay

Bundle up and hit the trails to explore the wintertime woods. Join Naturalist Rachel Albright as we go on a winter walk scavenger hunt, then return to the Environmental Center for hot cocoa! Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, January 3. $2.00 per person

Are You Ready for Some Sugaring?Ages 14 and up*Monday, January 6*6:30 – 8:00 PM*Environmental Center

The maple sugaring season is almost here; all we need are below freezing nights and warm days. If you're thinking about tapping your own trees, this is the program for you. Naturalist Lisa J. Sanchez will help you get prepared for the season. You will learn about the trees, collection and boiling techniques, how to know when your sap is syrup, what to do with the syrup, and a whole lot more! Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, January 3. $2.00 per person.

Homeschool Wednesday: Songbird MigrationAges 8 - 12*Wednesday, January 8*10:00 – 11:30 AM*Environmental Center

Continuing with Naturalist Mary Ann Schlegel, winter and early spring homeschool science classes will explore migration. Each session will delve into the wonders of migration within a different animal group. As our northern hemisphere days lengthen, students will also participate in the Journey North Mystery Class. Dress for indoor and outdoor activity. Programs are geared for ages 8 through 12. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Tuesday, January 7. $4.00 per child and $1.00 per adult.

SCRAPE the Spotted Lanternfly HikeAll Ages*Saturday, January 11*10:00 – 11:30 AM*Speedwell Forge County Park

Join Naturalist Lisa J. Sanchez for a hike to look for and scrape the spotted lanternfly egg masses. We will hike through Speedwell Forge County Park looking for the over-wintering egg masses and we will remove and destroy them. For every egg mass we eliminate, we will prevent about 50 insects from hatching in the spring. Please come out for an enjoyable hike and do some good for our environment. Meet at the parking lot on Speedwell Forge Road. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register by noon on Friday, January 10. Free. Donations are appreciated and allow us to continue to provide high-quality, environmental education programming.

Pre-registration and pre-payment are required for all programs.

Animal Track and Sign HuntingSaturday, January 11*1:00 – 2:00 PM*All Ages*Environmental Center

Winter is the perfect time to go hunting for animal tracks! Naturalist Vanessa Stager will lead a search for animal tracks and signs around the trails of Lancaster County Central Park. We will begin by learning about tracks and differentiating between species. We will also pick up other tricks of telling what types of animals are in the area before we start our search. Come prepared for cold weather by wearing boots, jackets and other winter apparel. This program is perfect for all ages and families! Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, January 10. $2.00 per person.

Munchkin Science – Winter BirdsTuesday, January 14*1:00 - 2:00 PM*Ages 3 - 5*Environmental Center

What birds stay here during the winter? Kids will be able to answer this question after they join Naturalist Ann Strauss in learning about our “birds of winter.” Kids will make bird feeders to take home with them so they may watch the winter birds in their own backyards. This program is geared for ages 3 through 5. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Monday, January 13. $4.00 per child and $1.00 per adult.

Reptile Lady: All about Turtles and SnakesSunday, January 19*1:30 – 2:30 PM*Ages 3 and up*Environmental Center

Join Reptile Lady: Naturalist Kelsey Frey, as you explore scaly creatures from around the world! Examine live turtles and snakes as you study their basic biology and unique features. The small group atmosphere includes time for questions and photo opportunities. - Scout Hike Ages 6 and up
Saturday, January 25 2:00 - 3:00 PM Exhibit Farmhouse
Come One Scout, Come All (boys and girls) to complete a 2-mile hike! This is an opportunity to fulfill a difficult requirement toward a hiking badge and have fun at the same time. Naturalist Ann Strauss will keep it interesting by teaching about the trail, plants, and animals along the way. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, January 24. $2.00 per person.
- Summer Tie Dye Shirts Ages 6 and up
Sunday, January 26 2:00 – 3:00 PM Environmental Center
Missing summer fun? Join Naturalist Ann Strauss and celebrate summer fun for an afternoon by making your own bright cheery tie-dye t-shirt! All supplies will be provided, but each participant must bring their own t-shirt. Shirts must be cotton or a cotton blend. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, January 17. $4.00 per person.
- Munchkin Science - Colors Ages 3 - 5
Tuesday, January 28 1:00 – 2:00 PM Environmental Center
Bring your Munchkin for a program of playing with colors. Children will learn the colors of a rainbow, spend time mixing colors like a young scientist, and paint with watercolors. Naturalist Ann Strauss will lead three activities that will catch the kids' color fancy. This program is geared for ages 3 through 5. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Monday, January 27. $3.00 per child age 3 and up and $1.00 per adult.
- Environmental Science Merit Badge Ages 10 - 17
Saturdays, February 1, 15, and 29 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM Environmental Center
Scouts interested in earning their Environmental Science Merit Badges may join Naturalist and Merit Badge Counselor Mary Ann Schlegel for three February Saturday mornings. Park sessions will include information and activities to meet badge requirements. Scouts will be responsible for completing some requirements on their own and sharing their findings with peers in subsequent park sessions. Dress for outdoor activity including 20-minute periods of quiet, potentially chilly, observations. Bring a water bottle, snack if desired, and two empty 2-liter soda bottles. Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Wednesday, January 29. $23.00 per scout and $3.00 per adult.
- GO Outdoors All Ages
Saturday, February 1 1:00 – 3:00 PM Environmental Center Forebay
Get out of the house and away from the winter doldrums! Naturalist Ann Strauss will lead a short hike to gather appropriate fire-starting materials on the way to Campsite #3. Once there, participants will practice a variety of fire-starting methods and share fixin's for s'mores. Join us around a fire on a winter day! Register online or call (717) 295-2055 to register and prepay by noon on Friday, January 31. $4.00 per person.

Pre-registration and pre-payment are required for all programs.

Unless otherwise noted children must be accompanied by an adult and children 3 and under are free.
